Program Specific Outcomes:

PSO 1- Apply sociological concepts to analyse and address real-world societal challenges.

PSO 2- Demonstrate the ability to engage in critical discussions about contemporary issues informed by sociological perspectives.

PSO 3- Utilize a sociological lens to assess and propose solutions to societal issues in the Indian context.

PSO 4- Engage in informed discussions on the interplay of institutions and processes shaping Indian society.

PSO 5 - Apply insights from classical sociological thinkers to contemporary societal challenges.

PSO 6 - Demonstrate the ability to critically analyse and evaluate the relevance of classical sociological theories in current contexts.

PSO 7 - Apply research design, data collection, and data analysis techniques to investigate and address social phenomena.

PSO 8 - Utilize research skills to contribute evidence-based insights to societal discussions and policy development.

PSO 9 - Critically evaluate media representations and their impact on societal perceptions.

PSO 10 - Engage in media literacy, contributing to informed discussions on media's role in shaping public opinion and culture.

PSO 11 - Effectively use visual sociology techniques to communicate sociological narratives.

PSO 12 - Apply visual methods to enhance understanding and engagement with social phenomena in diverse contexts.

PSO 13 - Analyse and assess the societal implications of different forms of religions in India.

PSO 14 - Contribute to discussions on religious diversity, tolerance, and the role of religion in modern society.

PSO 15 - Apply theoretical insights to critically examine and propose solutions to contemporary issues in marriage, family, and kinship.

PSO 16 - Engage in discussions on the diversity of practices, contributing to a broader understanding of familial structures.

PSO 17 - Utilize sociological perspectives to address social inequality and its manifestations.

PSO 18 - Apply theoretical frameworks to propose strategies for mitigating social stratification and promoting equity.

PSO 19 - Apply a sociological understanding of gender to address challenges in areas such as work and family.

POS 20 - Engage in discussions on gender equity, contributing to societal awareness and change.

POS 21- Utilize sociological insights to make pragmatic, ethical, and effective choices in resisting or intervening in gendered violence.

POS 22 - Contribute to societal efforts aimed at addressing and preventing gender-based violence.

POS 23 - Apply sociological perspectives to critically assess the social meaning of education and its implications.

POS 24 - Engage in discussions on educational policies, contributing to informed debates on educational practices and reforms.

POS 25 - Apply a critical understanding of population dynamics to address economic, political, and social challenges.

POS 26 - Contribute to discussions and policy development related to population movements and their societal implications.

POS 27 - Utilize sociological knowledge to address challenges faced by different types of workers in the changing nature of work.

POS 28 - Engage in discussions on workplace dynamics, contributing to informed perspectives on labour issues and industrial relations.

Upon completion of the undergraduate program, students will not only have gained knowledge in sociology but will actively use this knowledge to contribute to societal discussions, address challenges, and engage in informed decision-making across diverse social contexts.